PART 3: Special Ed History

REASON EXITED options

- ▶ Continuing in Special Education
- ▶ Definition: The Special Education Exit Reason of ‘Continuing in Special Education’ means that the student is continuing to receive special education services in the same district. A new special education record was sent to indicate that either a new IEP/ISP was created, some other attribute of the special education record was updated (education environment, parentally placed private status, etc.), or the student will be continuing in the same district in the following school year.

REASON EXITED options

- ▶ Revoked consent for special education services
- ▶ Definition: The Special Education Exit Reason of ‘Revoked Consent for special education services’ means that the student is no longer receiving special education services because the parent or guardian revoked their consent for special education and related services (See 34 CFR §300.300\(b\)\(4\)).

WISEdata Updates 18-19

REASON EXITED options

- ▶ Transferred to regular education
- ▶ Definition: The Special Education Exit Reason of ‘Transferred to regular education’ means that the student is no longer receiving special education services because the student meets one of the following criteria:
  1. The student no longer meets eligibility criteria for special education; or
  2. The parent or guardian removes the student from public school to be homeschooled; or
  3. The parent or guardian enrolls the student in a private school and does not receive a service plan.

REASON EXITED options

- ▶ Exited district due to enrollment exit code
- ▶ Definition: The Special Education Exit Reason of 'Exited district due to enrollment exit code' means that the student is not continuing in special education, was not withdrawn by a parent or guardian, and did not transfer to regular education. The student is no longer enrolled in the district.
